Operation Dignity is ready to come and meet the homeless at the Bulb to distribute blankets, sock and sandwiches, but would prefer to meet with Solano Community Church first to share information. A meeting will be arranged. Doing a census was also discussed, but funding will be needed for this effort.
Staff Leduc announced that the Council approved a seat for a homeless person on the Homeless Task Force. Members Thrush and Chambers will follow up with the distribution of the application and report back at the next meeting.

Staff Leduc announced that the City of Berkeley is recruiting for new members on the Mental Health Services Act Advisory Committee and distributed the application.

Alameda County Behavioral Health Care Services Innovative Grants Program
Submitted by the City of Albany, in partnership with the Berkeley Food and Housing Project

1) Project Name: Into the Wild: Psychosocial Interventions in the Urban Survivalist Community (application #280)

2) Project Amount: $220,000

3) Budget Rationale, Personnel: The proposed project uses 2 FTE MSW qualified case managers ($80,000 each, including benefits) to assess and engage with the mental health needs of the urban wilderness community. These personnel will be involved in planning, skill building, linkage with resources, work with family and other social supports, client psycho-education, crisis intervention, and collaboration with other providers. A quarter time supervisor ($30,000) will meet regularly with the case managers to compile information, monitor interactions, determine flexible effectiveness strategies, and ultimately provide a model set of treatments and recommendations which can be used for other urban wilderness communities throughout the country. Team meetings with project partners and stakeholders are also included.

4) Budget Rationale, Non-Personnel: Non personnel costs include travel ($2000, to accompany clients to appointments; food vouchers ($12,000), as incentives for client participation and follow-through; and facilities such as office space rent, equipment and supplies ($14,500). Total non-personnel costs are $28,500.

5) Anticipated Length of Project: 18 months

6) Type of Applicant: public agency, in partnership with non-profit agency

7) Fiscal Sponsor Federal Tax ID #: 94-6000289

8) Qualifications: The City of Albany is working in collaboration with the Berkeley Food and Housing Project a 501(c)3 non profit, which has been serving the needs of the East Bay since 1970. The BFHP assists low-income and homeless individuals with needs and disabilities that are not effectively met by mainstream social services. The agency hallmark is to provide services with compassion to foster a nurturing, healing environment that can effectively end an individual’s cycle of homelessness. For complete information, their website is www bfhp org. The City of Albany has successfully managed many grants of this size and larger, bringing all of them to completion in a fiscally and programmatically responsible manner.

10) Project's Target Population:
The target population for this project is unique. It is composed of a group of homeless "residents" between the ages of approximately 15 to 70, all races and ethnicity, living in encampments on the Albany Bulb, previously a waterfront landfill, and now effectively abandoned. This is a special population, which we have termed "survivalists." Most programs are designed to meet the needs of city based homeless individuals with mental health issues. There are no programs addressing the unique mental health needs, psycho-social backgrounds, and capabilities of those who choose to live in a semi-wilderness environment. These geographic areas have no water, food, shelters or infrastructure, yet people have opted to live in this environment, often for many years. They have proved resourceful at meeting their basic needs and appear to prefer minimizing their interactions with other people. This project will provide important information about the mental health needs and demographics of this group. The proposed project will help us answer the question of whether an assertive treatment modality can be effective in having this population accept psychiatric and other services.

11) Project Intervention Strategy: Other

12) Specific Innovative Project Activities:
The innovative feature of this project is applying the assertive community treatment methodology to an urban "survivalist" community, residing in a former landfill still filled with concrete, rebar, and scrub vegetation. As noted previously, there is no infrastructure to supply water, sewage facilities, food, or shelter. Unlike their urban counterparts who chose to live in cities and who have high levels of interaction with the public (such as panhandling and presence on the street), the "survivalists" are isolated and their mental health issues and needs have been largely unacknowledged and untreated.
13) Expected Short-term Project Outcomes: Our expected short term outcomes (six months to one year), are as follows:

a. to have multiple and consistent contact with ALL survivalist residents living on the Albany Waterfront (estimated at 50 at this time.)

b. to have a completed demographic and psycho-social profile

c. to have completed research on the existence of and strategies for similar groups locally, nationally and internationally;

14) Expected Long-term Project Outcomes: Our long-term outcome is:

a. to discover if the assertive community treatment modality is effective with this population, as measured by:
   i. accepting mental health treatment;
   ii. learning interactive and self-care skills;
   iii. desire to obtain entitlements
   iv. ability to live in long term housing.

b. Based on this, to develop potential longer term innovative mental health strategies to meet the needs of this population.

15) Project's Learning Question:
What is an effective psychosocial approach to addressing the mental health needs of the urban "survivalist" community?
