Above, sign on Target fence at Codornices Creek.

Right, "conservation area" Nov. 2, after rain swept some litter downstream.

Albany has notified Target and is working to relocate campers east of creek. Both are slow processes.

What is needed is clear policy of annual checks well before rainy season.

Right, Friends of Five Creeks Weed Warriors between Sixth and Eighth. (We will return Nov. 3, tomorrow.) We would like to work with Albany, Berkeley, and UC re positive suggestions on how to get adequate vegetation management.
