BOARD AGENDA STAFF REPORT

Agenda Date: November 2, 2016

SUBJECT: Adoption of Oversight Board Resolution No. OB 2016-2 approving dissolution of the Successor Agency to the Albany Community Reinvestment Agency effective December 31, 2016

REPORT BY: Craig Labadie, City Attorney and Legal Counsel to Successor Agency

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Staff recommends that the Albany Oversight Board adopt Resolution No. OB 2016-2 as the final step to implement the Settlement Agreement between Albany and the State of California arising out of the redevelopment dissolution process and conclude the wind-down process for the former Albany Community Reinvestment Agency.

BACKGROUND AND DISCUSSION

In 2011, the State Legislature enacted the Redevelopment Dissolution Law, which mandated that all California redevelopment agencies cease operations effective February 1, 2012. Successor Agencies were created to wind down the affairs of the former redevelopment agencies, including payment of enforceable obligations and disposition of assets, under the supervision of local oversight boards and the State Department of Finance ("DOF"). The City of Albany elected to serve as the Successor Agency to the Albany Community Reinvestment Agency ("Former RDA").

During the dissolution process, a dispute arose between Albany and the State concerning (1) funds previously transferred from the Former RDA to the City as part of the purchase price for the Pierce Street Park site, and (2) repayment of certain loans previously made by the City to the Former RDA to fund its redevelopment activities. The parties resolved their differences in a Settlement Agreement entered into on October 14, 2015. Among other provisions, the Settlement Agreement required the Successor Agency to formally dissolve no later than December 31, 2016. By Resolution No. OB 2015-06 (attached), the Oversight Board authorized the Successor Agency to take all actions necessary to dissolve itself by that date, including disposition of all remaining assets and distribution of residual funds to the Alameda County Auditor-Controller ("Auditor-Controller"). By letter dated December 31, 2015 (attached), DOF approved the Oversight Board action. To prepare for dissolution, the Successor Agency was required to dispose of all remaining redevelopment assets as directed by the Oversight Board no later than October 23, 2016. The Successor Agency was allowed to retain certain funds to pay for its administrative costs, including attorney's fees. Any remaining funds were required to be transferred to the Auditor-Controller for distribution to local taxing entities in proportion to their respective shares of the property tax. After completing the asset disposition, the Successor Agency was required to request the Oversight Board to meet no later than December 1, 2016 to adopt a final resolution of dissolution.

Consistent with its obligations under the Settlement Agreement, Successor Agency staff prepared a final accounting of the remaining funds held by the Successor Agency for administrative costs relating to the redevelopment dissolution process (attached). The unexpended portion of these funds ($163,522.17) was transmitted to the Auditor-Controller prior to September 30, 2016 for distribution to the local taxing entities. On October 3, 2016, the Successor Agency adopted a final resolution approving the dissolution of the Successor Agency effective on December 31, 2016 (attached).
FINANCIAL IMPACT

The Successor Agency has fulfilled its obligations under the Redevelopment Dissolution Law and the Settlement Agreement. Residual funds have been transmitted to the Auditor-Controller, and the Successor Agency has concluded its operations.

REPORT SUMMARIZING FINAL ACCOUNTING FOR SUCCESSOR AGENCY

Agenda Date: October 3, 2016

TO: Successor Agency to the Albany Community Reinvestment Agency

FROM: David Glasser, Finance & Administrative Services Director
Paul Rankin, Finance Advisor – Regional Government Services

SUBJECT: Unaudited Final Accounting of Administrative Funds

Under the Redevelopment Dissolution Law, the Successor Agency is responsible for winding down the affairs of the dissolved Albany Community Reinvestment Agency ("Former RDA"). This includes satisfying all "enforceable obligations" of the Former RDA, paying administrative costs for the dissolution process, and disposing of any remaining assets by transferring them to the Alameda County Auditor-Controller for distribution to the local taxing entities. The Successor Agency has previously satisfied all its "enforceable obligations." Its current assets consist of a total of $78,500 which was distributed to the Successor Agency from the Real Property Tax Trust Fund for administrative costs, but has not yet been expended. The purpose of this report is to present a final accounting of the Administration Funds held in trust by the City.

The Redevelopment dissolution process included both Oversight Board and Department of Finance approval of bi-annual Recognized Obligation Payment Schedules ("ROPS"), including administrative budgets and expenses. Funding for these expenses was distributed to the Successor Agency from the Redevelopment Property Tax Trust Fund (RPTTF) for payment of eligible costs. This fund is administered by the Alameda County Auditor-Controller.

As part of the Settlement Agreement with the Department of Finance, the Successor Agency agreed to limit its allowable administrative costs. Section 1(f)(4) of the Agreement provided that the Successor Agency was entitled to retain the estimated amount of its reasonable and necessary administrative costs, including attorney's fees, up to the date the Successor Agency is dissolved. However, the amount retained shall not exceed the amounts approved as administrative costs in ROPS 14-15B ($46,000) and ROPS 15-16A ($32,500). The remaining funds must be transferred to the Auditor-Controller not later than October 23, 2016 for distribution to the local taxing entities. The following table summarizes the status of the Successor Agency's administrative costs, which did not exceed the authorized amount.

| AMOUNT AVAILABLE PER LIMITATIONS IN SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND SUBSEQUENT ROPS AUTHORIZATIONS |
|-----------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| ROPS PERIOD                                   | AUTHORIZED ROPS | ACTUAL / EXPENSES |
| 2014-15B (Jan – June 2015)                    | 46,000          | $16,560         |
| 2015-16A (July – Dec 2015)                    | 32,500          | 10,201          |
| 2015-16B (Jan – June 2016)                    |                | 3,201           |
| TOTAL                                        | $78,500         | $29,962         |
| Estimated Final Reporting (Legal & RGS Administrative Costs) | | 2,330          |
As shown above, the Successor Agency administrative expenses through closure are $46,208 less than what was originally authorized as part of the ROPS process. The lower level of expenditures reflects that the litigation was resolved in an efficient manner.

In addition to the authorized ROPS funds for administrative expenses, the Successor Agency Trust Fund held additional amounts previously distributed from the RPTTF. In accordance with the Settlement Agreement, all residual funds must be distributed to the Alameda County Auditor-Controller. The following summarizes the funds to be transferred to the Auditor-Controller:
