Mechanical Code (M/C)

1. Exposure to extreme wind, snow, or rain shall be considered as existing.
2. Building structure shall be of masonry, concrete or masonry with concrete reinforcement.
3. Building shall be supported by a rigid frame and footing.
4. Building shall be designed for a minimum wind speed of 120 mph.

Building Code (B/C)

1. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone A provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
2. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone B provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
3. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone C provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
4. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone D provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
5. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone E provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
6. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone F provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
7. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone G provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
8. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone H provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
9. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone I provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
10. Building shall be constructed in accordance with the Zone J provisions of the International Building Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.

Electrical Code (E/C)

1. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electrical Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
2. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electric Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
3. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electric Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
4. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electric Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
5. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electric Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
6. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electric Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
7. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electric Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
8. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electric Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
9. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electric Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.
10. Electrical systems shall be designed and installed in accordance with the National Electric Code. Provide for an approved submittal with the plans and specifications.

General Project Requirements

1. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.
2. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.
3. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.
4. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.
5. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.
6. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.
7. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.
8. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.
9. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.
10. The project shall be in accordance with the requirements of the project specifications.